

Plants of Chesil Beach and an associated small mammal

Jonathan Cox

Fine untrampled shingle vegetation on Chesil Beach

Yellow Horned-poppy on Chesil Beach

Sea Pea, a Nationally Scarce plant, on Chesil Beach

Sea Pea and Sea Campion on landward slope of Chesil Beach

Sea Pea, Sea Campion and Herb Robert on Chesil Beach

Shrubby Sea-blite at base of Chesil Beach beside the Fleet

Rock Samphire and Curled Dock on Chesil Beach

Young plants of Herb Robert on Chesil Beach

Effect of storm waves on Chesil Beach vegetation

Vegetation disturbance from storm waves at Chesil Beach

Wild Carrot growing after storm disturbance, Chesil Beach

Flowers and fruiting heads of Wild Carrot, Chesil Beach

Deep-rooted Sea Kale persisting after winter storms, Chesil Beach

Sea Kale and Sea Pea in flower, Chesil Beach

Perennial Sow-thistle, Sea Campion and Curled Dock on Chesil Beach

Sea Lavender and Buck's-horn Plantain at Chesil Beach

Danish Scurvy-grass flowering early in year, Chesil Beach

Sea Purslane and Glasswort at base of Chesil Beach near the Fleet

Low-growing Blackthorn at back of Chesil Beach

Ulota Moss and Polypody fern at back of Chesil Beach

Moss and lichen on stabilised shingle at Chesil Beach

Lichen colonising vertebra of small cetacean on Chesil Beach

Lichens on old flotsam shoe at Chesil Beach

Young Wood Mouse on Chesil Beach

Washed-up old wood providing shelter for mouse nest at Chesil Beach

Mouse feeding site in old boot at Chesil Beach

Mouse feeding remains from Chesil Beach: Sea Campion fruiting heads and pods above, Hazle nuts bottom left, and Dock seeds bottom right

Chesil Beach

